PURDUE UNIVERSITY

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF COMPUTER SCIENCE 1962 – 2012

FRIDAY, APRIL 5TH, 2013

JOIN PURDUE COMPUTER SCIENCE FOR THE CLOSING CELEBRATION OF OUR 50TH YEAR! FEATURING DISTINGUISHED GUESTS:

Prof. Deborah Estrin, Cornell Tech
"Embedding Mobile Computing and Research in Everyday Life"
10:30 a.m.

Dr. Farnam Jahanian, CISE Directorate, National Science Foundation
"Innovating for Society: Realizing the Transformative Impact of Computing and Communication"
2:00 p.m.

Prof. Fran Berman, Rensselaer Polytechnic
Institute
"Got Data? Building a Data Ecosystem to Drive
21st Century Research"
3:00 p.m.

Dr. Vint Cerf, President of the Association for Computing Machinery
"Political, Economic, Social and Technical (PEST)
Impacts of the Internet"
4:30 p.m.

All lectures will take place in the Lawson Computer Science Building Room 1142.

Seating may be limited to those who RSVP at 50th.cs.purdue.edu.

A live stream of each lecture will be available to view in LWSN Commons.